Terms and Conditions of the New Option

The terms and conditions of the New Options are as follows:

- (a) The New Options shall expire on 30 April 2005 (“Expiry Date”).
- (b) Each New Option shall confer the right to subscribe for one fully paid ordinary share, ranking pari passu with existing issued fully paid ordinary shares, in the capital of the Company.
- (c) The New Options shall be exercisable by notice in writing to the Company received at any time on or before the Expiry Date, however the fully paid ordinary shares will be allotted not more than fifteen days after (but not including) the exercise date.
- (d) The New Options may be exercised in whole or in part. If the Options are exercised in part each notice of exercise must be for not less than 1,000 shares and in multiples of 1,000 shares.
- (e) The exercise price for each Option shall be 15 cents.
- (f) The New Options may be transferred at any time in whole or part.
- (g) A certificate will be issued for the New Options. On the reverse side of the certificate there will be endorsed a statement of the rights of the option holders and a notice that is to be completed when exercising the Options. If there is more than one New Option comprised in this certificate and prior to the Expiry Date those Options are exercised in part, the Company will issue another certificate for the balance of the Options held and not yet exercised.
- (h) The option holder will not be permitted to participate in any new pro-rata entitlement issues of securities of the Company without first exercising the relevant New Options.
- (i) In the event of a reorganisation of the issued capital of the Company, the New Options will be reorganised in accordance with the Listing Rules of the Australian Stock Exchange Limited.
- (j) The new options will not give any right to participate in dividends until shares are allotted pursuant to the exercise of the relevant New Options.
- (k) If there is a pro-rata issue (other than a bonus issue) to the holders of the underlying securities the exercise price of the New Option may be reduced accordingly to the following formula:

$$O' = \frac{O - E [P - (S + D)]}{N + 1}$$

O' = the new exercise price of the option.

O = the old exercise price of the option

E = the number of underlying securities into which one option is exercisable

P = the average market price per share (weighted by reference to volume) of the underlying securities during the 5 trading days ending on the day before the ex rights date or ex entitlements date.

S = the subscription price for a security under the pro rata issue

D = the dividend due but not yet paid on the existing underlying securities (except those to be issued under the pro rata issue)

N = the number of securities with rights or entitlements that must be held to receive a rights to one new security

- (l) In the case of a bonus issue the number of Shares over which the option is exercisable may be increased by the number of Shares which the option holder would have received if the option had been exercised before the record date for the bonus issue. The Company shall notify the ASX of the adjustments in accordance with the Listing Rules.
